

Description

Public water fountain from El Atance located in Sigüenza, Castilla-La Mancha, Spain. At the end of the 20th century, the village of El Atance was completely submerged under water after the construction of a new reservoir. Before flooding the village, the authorities moved the most important monuments of the town stone by stone, including this fountain dated 1883.

Specifications

Country: Spain

Region: Castilla-La Mancha

Material: Stone

Age: Contemporary

Digitization date: 2020

Digitization method: Photogrammetry

Photos / scans number: 489

Model URL: <https://globaldigitalheritage.org/model/public-water-fountain-el-atance-spain-2/>