

Description

Cueva de Los Casares near the village of Riba de Saelices (Guadalajara) contains some of the most important Paleolithic engraving in Spain. This model of panels 2 and 3 shows a small sample of the art found in the cave. The most visible engraving in this model is a horse head near the center, but there are a number of different animal and anthropomorphic figures.

Specifications

Country: Spain

Region: Castilla-La Mancha

Age: Prehistoric

Provenance: Los Casares Cave

Model URL: <https://globaldigitalheritage.org/model/paleolithic-art-panels-2-3/>